Anna Akulova

has worked as supervisor and interpreter in an Intercultural Exchange Project with 39 youth from Russia

from February 24th till March 16th, 2015

at the Pestalozzi Children's Foundation, Switzerland.

Over a period of several days, we have dealt intensely with the following subjects:

- Identity and Personal Development
- Anti-Discrimination
- Intercultural Communication & Cooperation
- Intercultural Exchange with youth from Serbia
- Radio Broadcast for the purpose of reflection and multiplication
- Development of a follow-up project for the purpose of multiplication
- Switzerland, including excursions to various cities and historic sites

The Pestalozzi Children's Foundation would like to thank for the excellent cooperation during all courses and meetings and for the great commitment for the well-being of the children in the houses and during their leisure time.

(13 working days à 11 hours plus 7 days weekend à 16 hours = 255 hours)

We wish Anna Akulova all the best for the future.
